USER may arrange for one or more security personnel to be present before, during and after the Event and the cost will be borne by USER.

H. Use of Auditorium and Equipment

The Auditorium is provided for the purpose of conducting member office meetings, DAOR functions and educational purposes only. The rental cannot be held for a function that is used to solicit other agents or members. DAOR has the right to deny the rental for purposes of classes if it feels there is a conflict of interest to what DAOR is holding. The Event and all related activities will be conducted in an orderly manner. Auditorium and equipment are to be left in the same condition they were in prior to the event. USER will keep the Auditorium and every part of it in a clean and wholesome condition, free from any objectionable noises, odors or nuisances, and will comply in all respects with all health and safety and law enforcement and fire regulations. USER will deposit all trash and rubbish in receptacles provided by DAOR and located in the areas designated by DAOR. USER will not allow any illegal substances or Hazardous Material to be used, prepared, distributed, sold, generated, manufactured, released, stored, disposed of, or transported on, under, about, to or from the Auditorium. Should USER fail to follow these cleanliness rules, future use will be denied and shall result in the loss of USER's security deposit. USER will immediately notify DAOR Staff if there is a spill on the carpet.

DAOR will not be responsible in any manner to USER or its Invitees for any services or products, advertised, provided or promised by USER to any person or entity related to the use of the Auditorium. Should USER require any audio, visual assistance, and/or other accommodation equipment for the USER or Invitees, USER will immediately notify DAOR in order for DAOR to provide such equipment in an expeditious and reasonable manner.

Rental of the Auditorium includes the use of DAOR's three television sets by connecting DAOR's HDMI cable to USER's laptop. If USER's computer is not HDMI compatible, then USER will need to bring USER's own adapter. Use of DAOR's white board is allowed. DAOR will lend USER DAOR's special wet erase pens in exchange for USER's keys. If USER uses USER's own pens on the white board, and it does not completely erase, the responsible person will be invoiced $200 for replacement of the ruined white board.

I. Licenses Permits

USER will obtain, at its expense, any and all licenses and permits required for the Event and USER's use of the Auditorium. USER indemnifies DAOR fully for any fees, charges, fines, or penalties related to any license and permit USER obtains, is obligated to obtain, or fails to obtain, and for any fee or fine USER pays or is obligated to pay.

Approval of applications will be limited to responsible persons or groups. DAOR reserves the right to provide and require forms, applications and documents as may be necessary to protect its interests. Applications for reservations may be submitted with all required deposits and fees paid to DAOR at 12073 Paramount Blvd, Downey, California 90242.

M. Promotion

The rental of the Center does not include any promotion of USER’s event, except for flyer provided by USER in DAOR’s store. DAOR has several ways to help promote USER’s event at an additional cost to USER. All promotion materials, whether a flyer or additional materials paid for by USER, must be approved within three (3) days of filing this Agreement. Immediate cancellation of rental could take place if promotional material is not received by DAOR.

N. Exclusive Use Limitations

If USER requests a reservation for a time when the Auditorium is already booked or is unavailable due to an exclusive use agreement between DAOR and another USER, DAOR will notify USER within 72 hours of receipt of the signed Rental Agreement. If USER does not request a different Event Date that is acceptable to DAOR, DAOR will return the $50 Security Deposit.

O. Default / Breach

Failure by USER to make payment of all deposits, fees and charges due no less than fourteen (14) days prior to the event will constitute a default. The Auditorium will not be made available to USER if said payments are not timely made. In the event of any default or breach hereunder, USER will pay all costs, expenses, and attorney fees, whether or not suit is filed, to enforce this Rental Agreement and to collect any amounts due to DAOR.

P. Laws

USER and its Invitees will observe, obey and comply with all applicable city, county, state and federal laws, rules and regulations. USER and its Invitees will not use, or permit any person or persons to use, the Auditorium in any manner which, in the sole discretion of DAOR, is inconsistent with the image of a community or family-oriented business, or in violation of the laws of the United States of America, or the laws, ordinances, regulations and requirements of the state, county and city where the Auditorium is situated, or of other lawful authorities. The Auditorium will not be used for purposes of advancing any doctrine or theory which is subversive under the Constitution of the United States. DAOR strictly adheres to the Federal American with Disabilities Act and California’s Unruh Act.

Q. Signatures

The person who signs below on behalf of USER acknowledges that he/she has read and agrees to all the terms and conditions contained in this License Agreement and that he/she is authorized to and does execute this Rental Agreement on behalf of USER, and DAOR hereby accepts USER’s application for use of the Auditorium.
